Prominent Old Point Citizen Suffers Attack of Heart Trouble While Taking Swim.

Capt. William Baulch, Sr., one of the leading business men at Old Point, and prominent in secret order is extremely ill in his home Fort Monroe reservation.

Capt. Baulch, who conducts a large shipping store and the news-stand at Old Point, following his usual cuato went swimming in the pool in Hotel Chamberlin Saturday night about 10 He was then in fine spirit apparently in excellent health, seemed to enjoy the swimming the pool, when he began to feel ill. Hurriedly going to his dressing room Capt. Baulch dressed himself and left the hotel.

He was followed by several of his friends, who inquired of him his reas-on for leaving the water so abruptly, and he replied that he was ill. He went to his home and soon began to get worse and finally the family sum-moned Lr. George K. Vanderslice, the family physician. Dr. Vanderslies found that Capt. Baulch had suffered an attack of hears trouble, due probably to over-exertion in swimming. He remained with his patient most of Saturday night, Sunday and yester. and it was said last night that t. Baulch showed a very slight mpr vem at.

Capt. Haulch is a past eminer Knight Templars; past exalted rules of Hampton Lodge of Elks, and stands high in all the Masonic fraternities He is at present an officer in the Virginia Grand Convendery Knights Templar. He is one of the most beloved men in this section, and news of his serious illness has given his wide circle of acquaintances considerable measures.
